Our Kinsman-Redeemer

'They remembered that God was their Rock, that God Most High was their Redeemer.'
Psalm 78:35

Kinsman-Redeemer is a phrase that takes centre stage in one of the Bible's great stories of romance and redemption, the book of Ruth. A famine had driven Naomi's family from Bethlehem to Moab, where her husband and two sons died a few years later, leaving her a widow in a foreign land. She resolved to return to her hometown of Bethlehem, and her daughter-in-law Ruth went with her. Boaz was everything the women were not. He was a man of means and property; they were women in need. When Boaz saw Ruth gleaning grain in his field, he asked about her, spoke to her with kindness, instructed her and protected her. Eventually he married her, saving Ruth and Naomi from ruin. He was their Kinsman-redeemer. Boaz saw Ruth; Christ sees you. Boaz was affluent. Jesus owns every square inch of the universe. Boaz told men to leave Ruth alone. Jesus commands Satan to leave you alone.
